

Book Bingo KS1

Rules and Rewards

To sign off a block you must have evidence in with your parent's signature or have completed a reading task provided by class teachers. You can email these to your teacher with a picture of your filled in Book Bingo sheet until we are using homework books again.

Photographs of challenges may be displayed in class and around the school.

Evidence Ideas

Write a new 'blurb' for the back of your book.

Write a letter to the author telling them why you did or didn't like the book

Think of 3-5 questions you would ask the main character. Answer them as the character.

List the characters from the story and draw a picture of each of them

Make a fact file about one character

Design a new eye-catching front cover for the story.

Rewards:

Each term those who complete either:

A row (you must complete 4 boxes in a line) or a column (you must complete 5 boxes in a line) will have a special treat.

In summer term those who have completed 'BINGO!' will have a Reading Super Star certificate presented at an award ceremony with cake, biscuits and juice. (and a mystery prize!)
