Description of task	As part of theme week, we are going to be completing work all about being heroes and superheroes. We would like the children to research for information either about a fictional hero (from something they have read or watch) or about a real life hero. They should complete a short fact file about them and explain why they are a hero. They may include a picture if they wish to. Please continue to bring in newspapers and any masking tape or sellotape, if you have some spare. Thank you.	Mymaths - complete at least two of these two activities: Short division Introducing long division Long and short division
Outcome	This work will be looked at/marketed/ used as part of lessons starting on: Tuesday	This work will be looked at/ marked/ used as part of a lesson on: Friday
