

Workers of the Week

29th November 2021

Avon

WOW – Isla F for working so hard with her maths work this week! She wrote addition number sentences all by herself! 😊

Star writer – Caleb C for writing his name independently on his work! Well done Caleb! 😊

Fleet

WOW – Alexa L is our worker of the week for the effort she always puts in to her homework. Alexa completes all her phonics and maths activities and does so with a big smile too. Keep working hard at home Alexa, well done.

Star writer- Isabella O is our star writer this week for how carefully she copied her writing inside her Christmas card. She carefully formed each letter and tried hard to keep the letters the same size. She listened carefully to instructions and wrote her name independently too.

Trent

WOW- Rae K is our worker of the week this week. Rae was able to confidently find different ways to make 5 and wrote them as a number sentence. Keep up the excellent maths work Rae 😊 Well done!

Star writer – Jude H is our star writer this week. Jude has put in lots of effort during phonics this week and working hard to write words independently. He listens carefully to the sounds and write the appropriate letters. Well done Jude 😊

WOW –Ella M is this week's WOW worker for stepping in at the last minute to play a king in our Christmas assembly. Ella was able to still remember her line AND act the part of a king fantastically. I was very proud of her.

Star writer – Amelie P is this week's star writer for writing a fantastic letter to Father Christmas. Amelie remembered to use finger spaces, full stops and her best handwriting. She also thought of some really interesting questions for him to ponder! Well done 😊

1BC

WOW- Joseph W you are the worker of the week for always showing us fantastic behaviour at school. You are a very smiley and friendly boy and you always remember the school rules. We are very glad to have you in 1BC. Well done!

Star writer – Pearl P you have the star writer award for using lovely descriptive words in your winter acrostic poem. We like the sound of 'eating Christmas puddings' and 'relaxing on the sofa!' Well done for keeping your handwriting neat as well. Super work!

WOW – Penny S is our worker of the week this week for her consistently positive attitude, big smile and perseverance. Penny listens well in her lessons and works hard to follow instructions. She always follows our school rules and is a pleasure to have in our class. You are a superstar, Penny!

Star writer – Sophia F – Sophia F is our star writer this week for her excellent effort in writing her winter acrostic poem. Sophia thought carefully about winter themed words and adjectives she could use and then worked hard to think of her sounds to build the words. Super effort, Sophia! Keep it up 😊

2B

WOW – Joshua C For having an excellent attitude towards learning. He is keen and always tries his best.

Star Writer – Hollis worked hard this week to write his letter to Santa. On Friday he typed it up with minimal support. Great effort Hollis!

2J

WOW – Ethan L - Not only has Ethan been determined to work on his own in Maths this week but he has worked incredibly hard to solve problems using division and multiplication. Some have been rather challenging! Well Done!

Star writer – Orla S - Miss Jupp is so proud of Orla this week. She made sure that her letter to Father Christmas was perfect! She recorded 3 questions and tried hard to make sure her question mark and openers were in the right places.

2M

WOW – Stanley B - Stanley has been working really well this week on his timetables and multiplication! Keep it up Stanley.

Star Writer – William A- William wrote an AMAZING letter to Santa. He thought carefully about his handwriting, and punctuations. I am very proud.
