

Workers of the Week

w/c 3rd January 2022

Avon

WOW – Martin A for settling in so well after the Christmas holidays. He has started to complete activities by himself and always has a big smile on his face! Well done Martin 😊

Star writer – Hollie D for writing an excellent sentence about the toy she received from Santa. She remembered how to write the word 'I' and sounded out the other words by herself. Well done! 😊

Fleet

WOW – Nickolas T has been chosen for our WOW award, for how well he is joining in with other children in the class. Nickolas has made some good friendships and is often showing teamwork skills, working together with others to create and build with equipment. He shares some great ideas with his peers.

Star writer- Samuel B is our star writer this week. He wrote a sentence about a Christmas present he received. Samuel independently wrote the tricky word I and sounded out the other words he needed. He then drew a very detailed picture of his gift and was able to explain it in lots of detail. Great job Sam!

Trent

WOW – Henry A is our worker of the week because he has remembered our classroom rules and settled back into class well. He has sat quietly and listened during whole class sessions. Well done Henry 😊

Star writer – Michael A is our star writer this week. He wrote a sentence about a Christmas present. He used his sounds well to spell words and tried hard to form his letters correctly. Well done Michael 😊

WOW – Sebi M is 1B's worker of the week for coming back to school so maturely. Sebi has been working really hard to improve his listening skills and has been impressing me with his good behaviour! Keep it up Sebi!

Star writer – Louis R is this week's star writer for writing interesting adjectives and similes to describe 'Six Dinner Sid'. Louis thought of some wonderful original ideas....'his eyes are as shiny as crystals'.

WOW – Maddie N you have this week's WOW award as you listen well at carpet time and always put your hand up to offer an answer. You are a confident, happy and very smiley young lady. We are very glad to have you in 1BC :0)

Star writer – Cooper K you have the star writer award for this week. You wrote some super sentences about your Christmas holiday. You have used capital letters, finger spaces and full stops all by yourself. Great work- well done Cooper!

1J

WOW – Sophia C – Sophia C is 1J's worker of the week this week. Sophia's best friend has recently moved school and despite feeling sad, Sophia has faced this challenge well and has been working on building her friendships with the other children in her class. Sophia is growing in confidence every day and I am super proud of her!

Star writer – Archie D – Archie is 1J's star writer this week for always impressing me with his brilliant effort and writing! Archie works hard in every single lesson and always tries to do his best. He wrote a lovely recount of his Christmas day and used his sentence rules perfectly!

2B

WOW – Octavia M - Octavia is a great role model in 2B. She is a keen team player and is often seen making sure her friends are OK. During carpet time, Octavia has been enjoying the challenges and will show great empathy towards others if they win or lose. Well done Octavia for showing how well you work in our team.

Star Writer – Bodhi L - Bodhi has come back so positively after the Christmas break. He is always keen to do his best, however in his writing this week he worked so hard to write 3 excellent New Year Resolutions and we were very impressed with his ideas. Well done Bodhi, keep this up!

WOW – Joshua B has been such a hard worker in History this week! Joshua has used different photos, maps and books to answer questions in detail about the Great Fire of London. Miss Jupp has loved listening to your new facts!

Star writer – Leo D for using facts and his own senses to write a descriptive letter about the Great Fire of London. Lots of punctuation, adjectives to remember but you impressed us all with your ideas!

2M

WOW – Archie P- Archie has been a super star learner this week. He has been trying to challenge himself in all aspects of the curriculum and completing his work to the best of his ability. Well done!

Star Writer – Poppy C- I LOVE that you used so many facts in your letter about the GFoL. You really thought about your senses. Well done!
