

Workers of the Week

19th March 2022

Avon

WOW – Amber L is our worker of the week. She showed an excellent understanding of the Easter story and put her hand up in class to answer questions. Well done Amber! 😊

Star writer – Poppy J is our star writer. She worked so hard to write a sentence about the Easter story. She said her sentence out loud before writing to help her remember the next word. Well done! 😊

Fleet

WOW – Cooper R is our worker of the week. He has recently been showing more interest in whole class discussions and has been keen to learn and use our new vocabulary, eg cygnet. He has been independently completing his daily tasks well too.

Star writer- Amelia H is our star writer. When she wrote a sentence about the Easter story, she tried hard to hear the sounds she needed. Amelia was able to write the tricky words 'on' and 'the' independently.

Trent

WOW – Frankie S is our worker of the week. Frankie has been participating well in all class discussions and listens carefully during whole class sessions. He has recalled what he has learnt about the Easter story and used some new vocabulary he has learnt. Well done Frankie 😊

Star writer – Lenny G is our star writer. Lenny wrote a sentence about the Easter story. He used his sounds to write words and tried hard to form his letters. Well done Lenny 😊

1B

WOW – Fatima N is our worker of the week for being always so positive and enthusiastic. Fatima is always keen to learn and is such a wonderful role model for the class.

Star writer – Lilly-Ann W is our star writer this week for making lots of progress within writing. Lilly-Ann wrote super Easter sentences using her phonics to carefully sound out. Well done Lilly-Ann. I am very proud of you!

1BC

WOW – Isabelle W you have the WOW award for being a super member of 1BC. You are kind, friendly and always cheerful. Thank you for being so wonderful- we are very glad to have you in our class!

Star writer – Jenson E you are the star writer for thinking of some super sentences about our Easter picture. You included capital letters, full stops, finger spaces and you even used the word 'because' to explain some more - well done!

1J

WOW – James P – James is our WOW of the week for trying really hard to join in with his lessons and putting super effort into his work. James has also been working hard on practicing his spellings at home and has shown excellent improvement since. Keep it up, James 😊

Star writer – Sophia C – Sophia C is our star writer this week for trying so hard on her presentation and spelling when writing about an Easter scene. She thought carefully about what she wanted to write and then applied her sentence rules and sounds to make some perfect sentences! Super effort, Sophia 😊

Workers of the Week

19th March 2022

2B

WOW – Joseph L - Joseph has impressed us this week with his attitude to improving his work. He used his English plan to gather his ideas and then thought about ways to improve his paragraphs.

Star Writer – Stevie G - Stevie was a SUPER write this week. She thought very carefully about her paragraphs and made sure her sentences made sense. Well done Stevie. Keep this up 😊

2J

WOW – 2J have the WOW this week for being super polite when the Vicar came to visit! You listened carefully to how our Easter Egg donations will help Upminster families and asked him questions about his job. It really helped your learning in RE!

Star writer – 2J everyone made sure their handwriting was neat and letters were the same size when writing our Easter Cards. Well Done!

2M

WOW – Savannah L - Well done Savannah for your wonderful work this week. I am very impressed how hard you have tried in all subjects. I am also really proud of how polite you always are. Well done.

Star Writer – Sienna B - Sienna wrote a brilliant description of a page in Flotsam. She used her senses to help her description. We loved that she used lovely vocab and a variety of conjunctions.