

Workers of the Week

w/c 16th May 2022

Avon

WOW – Hollie is our worker of the week this week. She is always kind and helpful to all of the children in Avon class and is a fantastic role model. Well done Hollie! 😊

Star Writer – Elliot is our star writer this week. He has been working so hard on his writing and is starting to become more confident with writing sentences independently. Well done Elliot! 😊

Fleet

WOW – Our WOW award goes to Jed this week. He only joined Fleet class last Monday, but has already made friends and is listening well to instructions and joining in with all our carpet and classroom activities. We love having you in our class Jed and hope you are enjoying being at Engayne School.

Star writer – Tobie is this week's star writer, because he is now writing his letters smaller and making sure that they all sit along the line neatly. Tobie is hearing most of the sounds in words. Well done!

Trent

WOW- Freddie is our WOW this week for being a fantastic caterpillar in our class assembly. He said his lines in a clear voice and performed his part as the hungry caterpillar very well 😊

Star Writer- Lexie is our star writer this week for completing writing tasks with more independence. Lexie write about the life cycle of a butterfly, thinking carefully about the sounds she could hear in words. She impressed me when she used her phonics to write longer words like 'caterpillar' independently. Well done Lexie 😊

WOW –Henry is the WOW this week for working really hard on his sounds with Miss Gardiner. Henry is coming out of his shell and I have seen a big improvement in his confidence recently! You CAN do it Henry! 😊

Star Writer – Beatrice is our star writer this week for working more independently during writing task. Beatrice wrote a brilliant description of a disgusting sandwich and included adjectives. Well done Beatrice!

1BC

WOW –Oliver you have the WOW this week for always trying your best in lessons and working hard. You are a super member of our class- calm, friendly and polite. We are very glad to have you in 1BC!

Star Writer – William you have the star writer award for using lots of description for your disgusting sandwich recipe. You worked independently and remembered to use full stops and capital letters. Well done!

WOW – Grace H – Grace is this week's WOW for her excellent effort and enthusiasm towards her work. Grace has completed some super work this week across all of her lessons and also puts fantastic effort into her reading at home too. Well done, Grace! 😊

Star Writer – Hudson – Hudson is this week's star writer for his fantastic instructions for how to make a disgusting sandwich! Hudson worked so hard to use some brilliant vocabulary and imperative verbs. His presentation was stunning and he remembered all of his capital letters, finger spaces and full stops. Excellent work, Hudson! 😊

WOW – Anayah – Anayah created a beautiful design on the back of her carnival t shirt. She thought very carefully about the colours and fine detail and the whole class were WOWed by it!

WOW – Freddie – Freddie impressed us this week with his painting on his t shirt. He very carefully used the paints to finish his design and he thought very carefully about the detail whilst he painted.

2J

WOW – Jed S Jed deserves the WOW for always throwing his efforts into every task he is given. He has listened carefully to instructions, shared with others and remembered to be polite. He is a super member of 2J!

Star Writer – Sienna W for trying hard to use her own spellings and examples of onomatopoeia to write a Nature Poem. You needed no help to use your sound mat and Miss Jupp loved all your clever ideas! Keep it Up!

2M

Star Writer – Blake P – Blake did a great job at using different examples of onomatopoeia to write his Nature Poem of all the different sounds that he heard around Engayne during our outdoor walk. Well done Blake! 😊

WOW – Aiyana- You are a superstar. I am so pleased with your attitude to work and how brilliant you have been working! Keep it up 😊
