

Workers of the Week

Week commencing 16th May 2022

3B

WOW – Gwenny G is our wow this week as she has shown great enthusiasm to design and prepare a healthy pizza pitta and a well-designed pizza box. She is a great role model of our school values when respecting and helping her class friends to make their boxes. Well done!

Star Writer – Phoebe D used fantastic punctuation, adverbs, expanded noun phrases, sentence starters and conjunctions in a story written about mount Vesuvius erupting in Pompeii. Keep it up! :)

3C

WOW – Joshua F – for working so hard on TTRS to improve his score and gain more coins. He is so proud of himself, as he should be, and his multiplication fluency has improved so much! Well done Joshua 😊

Star writer – Florence C – for writing an incredible story based on Escape from Pompeii. She used ellipses and varied sentence lengths for effect, powerful adjectives and adverbs and described the setting and characters. Great work Florence! 😊

3M

WOW – Nadiya R - for fantastic work in maths problem solving, tackling some tricky time questions and working well with a partner.

Star Writer – Caitlin T - for a brilliant story based on Escape to Pompeii. She used powerful adjectives, interesting adverbs and openers for her sentences.

4BT

WOW – Chase B – for working hard in maths this week and being enthusiastic in answering questions. Chase enjoyed the investigative questions and finding out how many different ways there were to answer the question.

Star Writer – Eden W – for working hard to write a report script about the discovery of King Tutankhamun's tomb. Eden tried her best to varied openers and key facts. Well done Eden!

4W

WOW – Liam C - for helping during our cricket lessons. He was brilliant at setting up the games and putting everyone into teams. He listened to others and set a fantastic example of being a team player. Well done!

Star Writer – Maisie-Lea H - for her excellent news report evaluation. She included 2 stars and a wish and used her very best handwriting. She also earned her pen licence this week. Well done!

4WH

WOW – Teddy G – for being so supportive towards his peers during our cricket lessons this term. Well done Teddy 😊

Star Writer – Willow B – for writing a brilliant new report script about the discovery of King Tutankhamun's tomb. Willow included all the key facts about the discovery and used powerful adjectives to describe thoughts and emotions. Keep up the excellent work Willow 😊

Workers of the Week

Week commencing 16th May 2022

5B

WOW – Lexi R and Frankie R – For showing a great attitude towards learning especially in computing. Keep up the great work.

Star Writer – Zayn JM – Well done for writing an excellent letter from Anne’s perspective, you used embedded clauses and a range of interesting sentences to captivate the reader. Keep up the fantastic work.

5G

WOW – Mari S - for such an enthusiastic and positive start to life at Engayne. Mari has demonstrated a great attitude to learning. Keep up the great work.

Star Writer – Ronnie P – for a great effort in our English lessons this week. Ronnie was able to write a letter with subtlety in a letter from one character in our class book to another.

5W

Star Writer – Poppy B-W- for a great effort with her English work this week. Poppy wrote a letter from one character in our class book to another. Well done Poppy!

WOW – Jake C- for a great effort with all lessons. Jake has been listening carefully to instructions and putting effort into class work. Well done Jake!

6A

WOW – Tamlyn F for being a superstar helper in our art lessons on Rene Magritte and surrealism.

Star Writer – Freddie R for putting in lots of effort into his explanation text. He used different tones of voice and a range of grammatical features to effectively communicate the process of chocolate to the reader.

6N

WOW – Leela P – for always having a fantastic attitude and working hard to complete all tasks to a high standard.

Star Writer – Zak E - provided good examples during starter activities. Worked hard to collate facts for his writing. Has worked well all week.

6P

WOW: Piers O. For the story work, he produced. When editing his draft copy, he included improved vocabulary and a range of punctuation, which enhanced the overall quality of his work.

Star Writer: Finn B. For the POP Art style picture he produced based on Pepper Pig. It was carefully produced and great to look at.