

Workers of the Week

w/c 2nd May 2022

3B

WOW –Myla has shown a great interest in our history lessons when learning about Boudicca. Keep it up!
Star Writer – Teddy is our star writer as he used excellent expanded noun phrases to describe the volcano eruption in Pompeii. Well done! 😊

3C

WOW – Emil Siminel – for such a fantastic improvement in his speaking and reading. He has started joining in with class discussions, reading text from the board and independently reading books. Keep it up, you're a star!! 😊

Star writer – Charlotte Dodge – for writing a great first-person description of Tranio in Escape from Pompeii. She used her senses to describe what could be smelt, saw, tasted, heard and touched. Well done Charlotte! 😊

3M

WOW – Azra has shown a great interest in our science lessons when learning about food webs. Keep it up!

Star Writer – Frankie is our star writer as he used excellent expanded noun phrases and powerful verbs to describe life in Pompeii. Great job

4BT

WOW – Thaila H – for working hard to design and start making a Canopic jar. Thaila worked carefully to think of how she wanted her jar to look and then worked hard to papier-mache and paint her jar. Well done Thails! 😊

WOW– Elza S – for working hard in all lessons last week. Elza made sure she was concentrating and contributing to all class discussions. Keep up the hard work Elza! 😊

4W

WOW – Bethany W – for her fantastic attitude towards learning. She works super hard in every task and always contributes to class discussions. Keep up the amazing work 😊

WOW – Raya BL – for her AMAZING Egyptian Canopic jar. She followed all instructions and used her creativity to make an elephant jar! Well done 😊

4WH

WOW – Manvi S – for working super hard and demonstrating great perseverance in all lessons this week. Manvi contributed to class discussions well. Well done Manvi 😊

WOW – Holly H – for designing and making a brilliant Egyptian Canopic Jar. Holly followed all instructions well and worked super hard to papier-mache and paint her jar. Well done Holly 😊

5B

WOW – Amelie M – Well done for working hard all week, your attitude towards learning is inspiring and it reflects in your class work. Keep up the brilliant work.

Star Writer – Emerald O – Well done for creating an excellent plan for your monologue. You have planned a clear structure to your writing and have including a range of interesting sentences that will be used in your writing. I look forward to seeing what the final version of your monologue will look like. Well done for the fantastic work.

Workers of the Week

w/c 2nd May 2022

5G

WOW – Kayne R for a good attitude to learning. Kayne has really tried his best in all our lessons and enjoys contributing to our lessons.

Star Writer – Harrison W for a super effort in all his written work. Harrison has really tried his best.

5W

Star Writer – Jake C- for a good effort with his monologue plan. Jake thought carefully about the thoughts and feelings of the character. Well done Jake!

WOW – Joshua H- for trying hard with his art technique using pastels and chalks to blend.

6A

WOW – Jack R for being really focused all week and working hard in our revision sessions. Well done.

Star Writer – Matei A for working hard to improve his writing by using lots of descriptive phrases. Keep it up!

6N

WOW – Toba A and Dimitris M – for working well as a group to answer maths questions.

Star Writer – Alexandria O – for working hard at home to improve her writing.

6P

WOW: Isabella. P and Olivia. M. For excellent teamwork. During our maths SATs revision lessons, they discussed answers to problems and applied what was taught. Their positive attitudes and effort enabled them to keep improving their scores.

Star Writer: Isla M. For the short story work, she produced. When editing her draft copy, she included improved vocabulary and a range of punctuation, which enhanced the overall quality of her work.