Description of task	Miss Austin, Mr Nash, Mr Parr, Mr Manifold and Mrs Sankey would all like to say a big, 'Thank you' to all of the children for having such a positive attitude throughout their SATs week. The way the children supported each other and approached the tests was very mature. As a reward for working so hard during SATs week and all trying their best, there will be no homework set this week.
Reading	Spelling	Vocabulary challenge	Activity Passport
Complete at least three reads at home and record them in your diary. Continue to work on the reading suggestions on the Ready Steady Read grid. The children will be rewarded for each book they read. Types of reading School colour banded books, Bug Club, books from home, Ready Steady Read challenges., School/class library books and non-fiction books. Author focus: Shakespeare. Topics this half term: Evolution and light	Year Six: Memory Book. In the final half term, the children will be working on a project to make their own Year Book. They will be collecting photographs of events and friends across different years. They will then organise it into a book, which we will provide. Finally, they will be able to get friends and teachers to sign it in the last week of term. This year, we thought they might like to also include photos of school events they shared with their friends over the years or things they did during lockdown. If you have any photographs and are happy for your child to include in their book, then please send it in via the school contact address.
