

Workers of the Week

w/c 6th June 2022

Avon

WOW – Tobias is our worker of the week. He has been very enthusiastic when taking part in all of the art activities in art week. Well done Tobias! 😊

Star Writer – Maisie is our star writer. She has completed lots of her own writing on the writing table and has been taking time over her work to make sure it makes sense. Well done Maisie! 😊

Fleet

WOW – Tobie is our worker of the week. He has been making a big effort to follow our school values about respect, belonging and taking responsibility for his own actions. Tobie has been playing well with his friends too. Keep it up Tobie!

Star writer – Blake is our star writer. He wrote some interesting sentences independently. He used his good phonics skills to attempt longer words, 'glamping' and 'marshmallows'. Well done Blake!

Trent

WOW- Michael is our worker of the week this week. He showed excellent skill when riding his bike, steering in and out of cones. Well done Michael 😊

Star Writer- Jude is our star writer this week. Jude wrote two excellent sentences independently about his half term holiday. Keep up the great writing! Well done Jude 😊

WOW – Ella has the WOW award this week for impressing me during PE. Ella was very confident with the relay racing and individual races. It was wonderful to see her speed and determination.

Star Writer – Louis is our star writer this week for writing an amazing story about the Queen. Louis thought of some super adjectives to describe the missing ring. It was a pleasure to read Louis' story!

1BC

WOW – All of 1BC! You all deserve the WOW award this week for working so hard on your phonics. You read lots of real and alien words with great sounding out and blending. We think you are SUPER STARS!

Star Writer – Vivienne F you are this week's star writer for writing such a good story about the Queen's handbag. You are a wonderful story teller! Our favourite part was when "the Queen stepped into the shade...and listened to the baby birds tweet". Beautiful!! 😊

WOW – Advait – Advait is this week's WOW of the week for always having a positive, hardworking attitude. Advait comes to school with a smile every morning and always puts his best effort into every lesson. Keep being super, Advait! 😊

Star Writer – Grace H – Grace is this week's star writer for her brilliant story based around the book 'The Queen's Hat'. Grace wrote a fantastic version about the Queen losing her favourite corgi and she included some brilliantly original ideas. She even remembered all her capital letters and full stops. Grace, you should be very proud of yourself!

WOW – Joshua Craddock – your attitude to learning is great. In each lesson, you work so hard and always try your best. What a 2B superstar!

Star Writer – Lillia – you have worked so hard this week on your writing. You created a really interesting story thinking about the environment. Then you took your time to improve your writing which is such an important skill. Well done Lillia!

2J

WOW – Danas has returned after the half term break with a smile and enthusiasm to learn! Danas has put all of his efforts into every subject, taking his time and working hard! Keep it up!

Star Writer – Marshall wrote an excellent St Lucia postcard including some facts about the island and asking questions to know more in our new Geography topic. Well Done for using your own ideas!

2M

Star Writer – Evie – Evie wrote a lovely St Lucia postcard as we start our new Geography topic and included some really interesting questions that she wanted to know more about. Well done Evie!

WOW – Alan – Thank you for always being a super star and working so hard. I love your explanations and how you help your friends to achieve!
