

Workers of the Week

Week commencing 23rd May 2022

3B

WOW –Ralph B

Ralph took great interest this week in our theme week and carried out fantastic research about the Queen. He used his research to help with his timeline and supported his friends too. Well done!

Star Writer – Ellie A is our star writer this week as she did an excellent job when writing her letter to the queen. She included a range of formal language and it was very well presented.

Keep up the great work! :)

3C

WOW – Kenzie W – for being so engaged and enthusiastic about Jubilee week! He worked really well with the other year groups and showed kindness and respect. Well done Kenzie! ☺

Star writer – Sarah M – for writing an in-depth opinion on Dawn Meets the Queen poem. She even then remembered the poem off by heart and included expression when she read it! Wow Sarah! ☺

3M

WOW - Naomi T for showing good team work skills and encouraging others positively during P.E and sports day

Star Writer – Kristian Z for a thoughtful letter to our Queen. He used powerful adjectives, interesting adverbs and openers for his sentences.

4BT

WOW – Molly K – for working so nicely with the children from Avon class and 3C when we did our class swap this week. Molly was very kind and made sure she helped the younger children with making their flags and crowns. Well done Molly!

Star Writer – Dulcie B – for writing a great wanted poster. We read 'The Queen's Knickers' in class and Dulcie had to describe the Queen's guard who may have been the culprit. She used fantastic adjectives to describe what the guard would look like. Well done Dulcie!

4W

WOW – Keira A – for always showing enthusiasm in every task. She is a great role model and always respects and helps others. Keep up the super work! ☺

Star Writer – Nitara A – for her super newspaper report about the Queen's missing knickers! She included a headline, the 5Ws and a quote. Plus she used her best presentation. Well done ☺

4WH

WOW – Thomas W – for always working hard in every lesson. Thomas contributes to class discussions and always listens carefully to instructions. Well done Thomas ☺

Star Writer – Ellis B – for writing a great newspaper report about the Queen's missing knickers. Ellis included a catchy headline, the 5W's in the opening paragraph and a quote. Keep up the super work ☺

5B

WOW – Alice M – Well done for being an excellent role model towards the Year One pupils. You showed them what it means to be a mature hard worker but also how much fun being in KS2 can be.

Star Writer – Emerald O – Well done for writing an excellent letter to the Queen on why you should be next to visit her. You structured your letter beautifully and used sophisticated formal language to adapt your writing.

Workers of the Week

Week commencing 23rd May 2022

5G

WOW –Katie S – for always working hard. This week, Katie has worked with Y1 pupils helping them to make a collaged flag and a crown. Katie always sets a good example to others.

Star Writer – Millen G – for making a great effort in our letter persuading the queen why he should be chosen to have tea with her.

5W

WOW – Hadi M- for carefully helping the year 1 children to make a crown and a flag. Well done Hadi!

Star Writer – Jack B - for an excellent letter to the queen persuading her as to why he should be chosen to meet her. Well done Jack!

6A

WOW – To all of 6A for putting in lots of effort to learn and master their many dances in preparation for their picnic in the park performance!

6N

WOW – Logan M – for working hard with his explanation text. Also, for his enthusiasm during dance practice and wanting to learn the poem off by heart. Well done!

Star Writer – Toba A and Alexandria O – for working hard to create a detailed explanation text about chocolate.

6P

Star Writer: Saffron B. For her work whilst organising an explanation text about chocolate. She made detailed notes during planning and organised them clearly when writing up her work. Well done.

WOW: Well done to the whole of 6P for their work during Jubilee week. Everyone worked enthusiastically to make their crowns and these looked great. I was also impressed when they worked with Y2 make flags and castles. They were supportive, patient and mature. Well done.