

Workers of the Week

w/c 13th June 2022

3B

WOW – Phoenix C has been participating with great effort in our PE lessons and uses fantastic running, throwing, catching and jumping techniques.

Star Writer – Beatrice L is our star writer as made excellent predictions when trying to solve a mystery. She included the correct punctuation for speech and used exciting adjectives in her writing.

3C

WOW – Neave G – for continually being such a good role model to her peers, showing determination, a positive attitude to work and always completing and presenting her work to the best of her ability. You're a star Neave! 😊

Star writer – Albie S – for writing a great conversation between the police officer and eyewitness about the flying frogs! He used the correct punctuation and inverted commas in the correct places. His handwriting also continues to improve. Keep it up Albie! 😊

3M

Star writer - Maxwell M has been chosen as the star writer because he wrote a very detailed description that contained speech and speech marks. He also wrote in paragraphs and tried hard to use conjunctions. Well done!

WOW - Jacob C for a super scooting during our bike-ability lesson. He kept scooting the entire time. Well done!

4BT

WOW – Dhoon P – for working hard every day and contributing confidently in RE lessons this week when we were learning about Hinduism. It was lovely to hear about your knowledge and experiences. Well done Dhoon!

Star Writer – Josie H – Josie is this week's Star Writer for writing an imaginative set of instructions to describe how someone could become flat like 'Flat Stanley'. She tried to make sure she had included rhetorical questions, time adverbials, adverbs and imperative verbs. Well done Josie!

4W

WOW – Oscar M – for working super hard during RE lessons this week. He worked well with his partner to explain about different religions and different places of worship. Keep up the great work, Oscar. 😊

Star Writer – Freya B – for her excellent instructions explaining how to flatten a friend. She included a catchy title, rhetorical questions, imperative verbs and a variety of adverbials. Brilliant writing, Freya!

4WH

WOW – Thomas W – for working hard in maths this week when learning how to tell the time. He took pride in the presentation of his work and supported his peers nicely in group activities. Well done Thomas 😊

Star Writer – Holly H – for writing excellent instructions on how to make someone 1inch thick. Holly included rhetorical questions, imperative verbs, adverbs and time adverbials. She even included a brilliant top tip! Keep up the fantastic work Holly 😊

Workers of the Week

w/c 13th June 2022

5B

WOW – Zayn JM – For working extremely hard this week and representing Engayne in a manner at Hallmead You engaged in every lesson by participating whenever the opportunity arose. Keep up the great work! 😊

Star Writer – Louie P – Well done for engaging with “The Elephant Child” story. Your notes were sequenced in chronological order which helped your narration. Keep up the great work! 😊

5G

WOW – Florence H for working hard in all subjects this week. Florence always thinks carefully about her presentation.

Star Writer – Ronnie P for taking great care and pride in all his work this week..

5W

WOW – 5W Whole class for excellent behaviour during Hallmead trip. All children participated in lessons and listened very carefully.

Star Writer – Samuel J- For engaging and answering questions during the English lesson at Hallmead. Sam wrote an excellent poem which he shared with the teacher. Well done Sam!

6A

WOW – Freddie R and Ethan S for having a fantastic attitude towards the dance performance. Well done!

Star Writer – Charlotte H for putting in lots of effort into her diary entries!

6N

WOW – Millie B and Maisy B – for effort, attitude and performances during dance practice.

Star Writer – Victoria Z – for creating detailed diary entries from two different perspectives on the same event.

6P

WOW - Sophia C For her artwork in the style of David Hockney. She effectively combined colour-mixing skills with collage techniques to produce a great copy of the painting called ‘The Bigger Splash’.

Star Writer - Samuel L For his continually effort to improve the skills he uses when writing. He took a story he had previously written and added new descriptions and advanced punctuation to enhance it. His work was very interesting to read

Workers of the Week

w/c 13th June 2022