w/c 6th June 2022

3B

WOW – Stefan S has enjoyed our access arts week and worked very hard in all lessons this week to produce excellent masterpieces. He interpreted Anthony Gromley's art work through his sketches and model of a skeleton.

Star Writer – Eldoxa D is our star writer as he used fantastic expanded noun phrases and the correct punctuation when writing a continued version to Katie in London. Well done and keep up the great handwriting! 😊

3C

WOW – Alex D – for being so enthusiastic during our Roman and Celtic battle. He also created a brilliant iMovie trailer with his team, showing cooperation and teamwork. Great work Alex! 😊

Star writer – Alfie F - for writing a fantastic piece on Katie in London, as he carried on the story. He used expanded noun phrases, adverbs, inverted commas and a cliff hanger to finish on.....Great job Alfie! 😊

3M

WOW- Jack T for creating an imaginative Roman iMovie trailer with his team. Well done.

Star Writer- Lucy C wrote a clear and expressive recount of our Roman and Celtic battle. Also, well done for taking care with presentation and making corrections for a final draft

4BT

WOW – Lewis M – for an excellent re-imagining of 'The Mona Lisa' by Leonardo da Vinci. Lewis was asked to try and portray the same piece of artwork in a new and interesting way and he did a fantastic job. Well done Lewis!

Star Writer – Megan C – for writing an excellent version of 'Katie in London'. Megan worked hard to include a variety of openers, descriptions and dialogue in her story. Well done Megan!

4W

WOW – Maisie-Lea H – for her fantastic reimagined art piece of Starry Starry Night. She followed the same style of the original piece but put her own spin on it and added lots of extra detail. Well done, Maisie-Lea!

Star Writer – Cristiano M – for writing his own part of the story 'Katie in London'. He independently researched two famous landmarks and wrote two paragraphs. He used his best handwriting and lots of descriptive language. Well done 😊

4WH

WOW – Sophie E – for showing excellent determination and perseverance in our maths lessons this week when we were learning how to tell the time. Sophie was confident enough to put her hand up and have a go at answering tricky questions. Keep up the excellent work Sophie 😊

Star Writer – Callista H – for writing a brilliant version of Katie in London. She used inverted commas, great adverbial openers and ambitious adjectives to describe how Katie and Jack were feeling on their adventure. Callista tried really hard with her handwriting and I can see a huge improvement in her presentation. Keep up the excellent work Callista 😊

WOW – Ethan L – Well done for showing a great level of creativity and innovative thinking during Arts Week. You used items found on the field to print a beautiful design onto your clay tile. Very impressive work, keep it up! 😊

Star Writer – Sonny P – Well done for writing an excellent diary entry from The Queen’s perspective on her coronation day. You created an excellent plan that resulted in your writing reaching a high standard. You used a great use of emotive language to show the reader the excitement the Queen felt during her important day. Fantastic work Sonny, keep it up! 😊

5G

WOW – Kayne O for continuous effort and good humour throughout Mr Manifold’s time in 5G.

Star Writer – Mari S for an excellent pair of diary entries written from the point of view of HM Queen Elizabeth on the days of her coronation.

5W

WOW – Poppy J- For listening carefully to instructions given in class. Poppy has been answering questions and reading her work aloud to help others. Well done Poppy!

Star Writer – Mollie B- For her excellent diary entry based on the queen’s coronation. Mollie thought carefully about how the queen would be feeling and carefully picked language for her diary entry. Well done Mollie!

6A

WOW – Millie C and Leyla H for putting in lots of effort into the dance sessions – keep it up!

Star Writer – Toby G for working hard to produce interesting diary entries with contrasting experiences.

6N

WOW – Max S – for showing a good attitude and working hard during dance sessions.

Star Writer – Mia C and Thomas A – for both working very hard to create entertaining diary entries. Great work!

6P

WOW - Robert. A, Finn B, Emilio.JS and Oliver G. For excellent group work in maths. They used string and chalk to draw perfect circles on the playground. They worked together to identify both radius and diameter of their circles, and were able calculate their area.

Star Writer - Nicky M. For his explanation text about chocolate. He organised his research into clear sections and used a range of sentence structures and punctuation accurately to explain how chocolate is made.
