3B

WOW

Ethan G

Ethan has been showing excellent enthusiasm in our maths lessons this week and engages well with challenging arithmetic questions.

STARWRITER

Zac B

Zac is our star writer for writing a fantastic persuasive letter to the council to take deforestation. Well done!

POLITENESS

Penelope S

Penelope reads our Engayne card aloud very proudly each morning and it motivates the rest of the class to be their best. Thank you Penny!

3BR

WOW

Imogen M

You always impress me in our Science lessons and this week your predictions for the pine cone experiment were spot on. Also I thought you were very creative when using the forest treasures to make some clever art work. Well done Imogen, keep up the great work!

STARWRITER

Vivienne F

Well done for writing such a persuasive letter to the council about not building new houses on our local playing field. You thought about how to make Mr Green really take note of your opinions and hear your voice. Well done!

POLITENESS

Advaith S

You are always so kind to your friends and speak politely to adults in class and around the school. Well done for being our politeness superstar!

3T

WOW

Sairaj A

for his excellent maths. Carefully drawing the route to show where the owl had visited, making sure his lines were the correct measurements.

STARWRITER

Henry P

for a fantastic letter to Havering Council telling them why they should not build on the school field. You included your own ideas and used good emotions to explain how you were feeling.

POLITENESS

Harry C

you are always so kind towards your friends. You are a real role model to the rest of the class.

Workers of the Week

week commencing 16th October
