Week commencing 30th October 2023

TRENT

WOW

Mannat is our worker of the week for always following our class Golden Rules and school values. She is often heard being polite and seen been kind and helpful to her friends. You are a great role model to others Mannat, thank you! 😊

STARWRITER

Bea worked hard to draw her firework picture and was able to label with the words bang, pop, crack independently. You are fantastic with remembering your sounds and finding them on the sound mat. Very well done Bea 😊

WOW

Myla is our WOW worker this week for settling in so well to school. Myla always comes into the classroom with a big smile, ready to learn. She is growing with confidence, trying new experiences. Well done Myla! 😊

STARWRITER

Rudra is our star writer this week for writing amazing firework words using his phonic sounds. I was so impressed with his independence to sound out using his robot arms. Well done Rudra! 😊

WOW

Reggie T – for always having such a big smile on his face. His laugh is so infectious and he is so happy to come into school and learn every day. Keep being a smiling star Reggie! 😊

STARWRITER

Sofia Z – for writing a great postcard as Flat Stanley on his holiday. She remembered to use capital letters and full stops, and used the sound mat to create words. She thought of why it was good to be flat, and used neat handwriting. Well done Sofia! 😊

2J

WOW

Mushin has been such a reflective learner in RE this week. Every lesson, Mushin has shown a great interest in the Islam faith and even made links to his own beliefs. 2J really enjoyed learning something new from you and now know even more about The Qu'ran. Excellent!

STARWRITER

Ollie worked hard to keep his letters on the line when writing his own wish as part of our Literacy session on 'Yeh Hsien'. Miss Jupp liked how thoughtful you were with your ideas and made a wish for your family and not yourself! Keep up the super writing!
