

Workers of the Week

week commencing 12th February 2024

3B

WOW

Zac

Zac always puts in 100% effort into our maths lessons and perseveres when he comes across a challenging question. Well done!

STARWRITER

Alfie

Alfie has written a fantastic recount all about our Celtic day. He tried his best to use interesting adjectives and remembered to use the correct punctuation. Excellent work :)

POLITENESS

Grace

Grace uses her step very well and completes her job to a high standard. Keep it up!

3BR

WOW

Lucy A

for working hard each week to complete the homework challenges. It really shows in class when you have practised at home and can use some of that extra knowledge in the lessons. What a star 😊

STARWRITER

Advaith S

for writing a brilliant recount of our Celtic Day. You used paragraphs confidently and you included some interesting time openers. Your writing was really interesting to read, well done Advaith 😊

POLITENESS

Beatrice N

for using good manners in class to adults and other children. It's always lovely seeing you in the morning with your big smile Beatrice 😊

3T

WOW

Olivia

For working really hard in all lessons during theme week. I have particularly been impressed with your coding work in Scratch. Well done Olivia!

STARWRITER

Harry

for an excellent piece of writing about Stevie Wonder. You used ambitious vocabulary and tried hard with your presentation.

POLITENESS

William

for lovely manners both in class and around the school. You always remember your STEP wherever you are!

Workers of the Week

week commencing 12th February 2024

4BT

WOW

Blake

For working hard in all lessons. Blake always tries his very best and joins in with class discussions well. Well done Blake!

STARWRITER

Francesca

For writing a great poem based on Valerie Bloom's 'The River'. Francesca used interesting adjectives and metaphors in her writing. Well done Francesca!

POLITENESS

Stanley – for always being extremely polite when asking questions.

4B

WOW

Alan

for working hard in all lessons. He always contributes to class discussions and questions as he works enthusiastically to the best of his ability. His work is always beautifully presented. Well done Alan!

STARWRITER

Sophie

For writing an interesting biography about a Paralympic athlete. She included relevant facts and interesting details and organised her work into paragraphs/ subheadings. Well done!

POLITENESS

Isabella

for always being responsible in class and helping others when the need arises.

4W

WOW

Sienna H

for working very hard to create a mixed media portrait of a Paralympian!

STARWRITER

Beau W, Rosie V, Harper O

for a brilliant poem inspired by Valerie Bloom's 'The River'. Beau, Rosie and Harper used metaphors, rhyming words and confidently performed their poem to the class. Well done girls!

POLITENESS

Louis S

for always using STEP!

Workers of the Week

week commencing 12th February 2024

5B

WOW

Peter C – Well done for engaging with our theme week on inspirational people. You contributed to our discussion on famous campaigners and conducted great research on the topic. Amazing work!

STARWRITER

Lilly B – Well done for recording 5 facts about Malala. They were well presented and written very clearly. Your sentences are showing great cohesion. Keep up the great work.

POLITENESS

Caitlin T

5P

WOW

Alex. D, Joshua. F and Kelly. S for producing a great protest poster as part of our theme week focus. Their made their message about protecting tigers very clear and presented their work well.

STARWRITER

Nadiya. R. For the excellent fact page she produced about Malala Yousafzai. The information about her life was organised logically and it was interesting to read.

POLITENESS

Politeness Award. Given to Azra. G.

5W

WOW

Sienna H

for working hard on designing a poster based on Anti-Racism as part of a competition. Well done Sienna!

STARWRITER

Ayaan N

for recording 5 facts about Malala Yousafzai in her topic book as part of our theme week, inspirational people.

POLITENESS

Florence M

for being kind and polite. Well done Florence!

Workers of the Week

week commencing 12th February 2024

6A

WOW

Naiya P

for always having a fantastic attitude towards learning and working hard to complete her tasks to a good standard.

STARWRITER

Sophia W

for working well to research and produce a comparison between England and Jamaica in relation to our theme week.

POLITENESS

George M

for always being polite and respectful.

6N

WOW

Eden W

for working hard in all subjects

STARWRITER

Liam C

for working hard to create a detailed quest narrative.

POLITENESS

Amelie B

for always being polite.

6G

WOW

Abigail H & Teddy G

for showing super team work in Gym and for putting the mats away.

STARWRITER

Maddison S

for a great comparison between England and Jamaica in our work on Inspirational People as part of theme week.

POLITENESS

Sairaa L

for always being polite and helpful