WOW

Rory D is our Worker of the Week this week. He has been listening very carefully to our class discussions and volunteering his answers and responses more often. Keep this up Rory, we love to hear your ideas. Well done!

STARWRITER

Sid D is our Star Writer this week. He has been making a big effort in our phonics lessons and with Miss Barnes, to write cvc words using the correct sounds. He is also writing the 'd' in his name the correct way around too. Keep it up Sid.

WOW

Erin B you have the WOW award this week because you have been spotted on many occasions showing kindness and respect to others. You listen very well in class and you always make us smile. Thank you Erin! 😊

STARWRITER

Harini K you have the star writer award for writing a good description from our 'Man on the Moon' story. You could hear most of the sounds you needed and were able to find them on the sound mat to copy down. Well done Harini for also remembering to use finger spaces. You have made a great improvement in your writing. 😊

WOW

Ivy B – for having such a fantastic attitude to her learning. She always comes in with a smile and tries her hardest. She enjoys a challenge, too! Keep it up, Ivy! 😊

STARWRITER

James C – for writing such a fantastic diary entry as Jack from The Tunnel. He used great adjectives to describe the place and his feelings. His handwriting and spelling were excellent! Well done, James! 😊

WOW

Isaac C – Isaac is our WOW this week for how enthusiastic and hardworking he is every single day. Isaac is so polite and always has his hand up to answer questions and join in with his lessons. This week he was able to recall some excellent vocabulary and knowledge linked to our History and Science topics!

STARWRITER

Louie R – Louie is our star writer for the fantastic effort he puts into his writing every week and for how well he listens to and takes onboard advice about how to make his writing even better. You should be very proud of yourself for how hard you work, Louie! 😊

WOW

Imogen has been so dedicated and shown an excellent level of creativity in our art lessons this week. She was clever in her choice of line, shape and colour and enjoyed using a range of art materials to create a piece of art work in the style of Kandinsky. Miss Jupp hopes your love of art continues to grow!

STARWRITER

Freddie wrote a super letter addressed to a shopkeeper during the Great Fire of London. You are growing in confidence when writing on your own and are trying harder to include newly taught vocabulary. You used all your senses and own ideas, your letter was fantastic!

WOW

Harrison- Harrison has been working hard this week in his maths. I have been pleased that he has focused and tried to challenge himself. Keep it up.

STARWRITER-

Lenny- Lenny wrote the most brilliant letter as if he was in the Great Fire of London! I am so proud of how he used his GFoL knowledge and senses! He also looked really carefully at all of the corrected spellings from his plan.
