WOW

Joshua E

is our Worker of the Week. He always tries his best with classroom work tasks and will ask for help when he is unsure about something. He plays well with others and always helps out too. Joshua has made us very proud with his swimming lessons, listening carefully and not giving up. Well done!

STARWRITER

Donnie O

is our Star Writer. Just before half term he completed a great piece of story work. He described the beginning, middle and end events of his space story and then carefully thought about which sounds he needed to add some words too. Keep this up Donnie!

WOW

Millie B-F is our worker of the week. She has been joining in with all our activities and trying really hard with her phonics and writing too. I know Millie has also been working very hard at home. Keep up the super work Millie! 😊

STARWRITER

Kayden R

is our star writer for making such a big improvement in his writing. Just before half term he completed a great piece about what he would take into space. Kayden is now able to hear the sounds he needs to write his sentence and find them on the sound mat to copy down. Keep up the super work Kayden! 😊

WOW

All of 1C!

For working so hard during theme week, not only being really engaged learning about David Attenborough and Greta Thunberg, but also for our amazing class assembly and their fantastic behaviour during their cycling and scooting sessions! I am bursting with pride, you are all so wonderful! 😊

STARWRITER

Noah K – for writing a fantastic fact file about David Attenborough during our theme week. He thought about the facts he had learned from our research, and he tried hard to use good vocab. Well done! 😊

WOW

Finley O

Finley has developed so much in confidence over the past few months and always uses beautiful manners. He is a total pleasure to have in 1W and is always so kind and caring towards his peers.

STARWRITER

Sofia D

Sofia is our star writer for how hard she worked during our theme week and for her super fact file where she recorded some of the lovely things she had learnt about David Attenborough. Well done, Sofia!

WOW

Jack is our WOW this week for his enthusiasm during theme week. He has enjoyed learning about David Attenborough and Greta Thunberg. Jack has been engaged in all activities we have completed this week and completed his best work. Well done Jack 😊 is our star writer this week for his excellent effort using his sounds to write words. Olavi was able to write labels for different animals, forming his letters correctly. Well done Olavi, keep up the great work 😊

STARWRITER

Olavi

WOW

Maisie

Well done Maisie for really enjoying our theme week and thinking about Frida Kahlo's life and how she has inspired us to overcome difficulties.

STARWRITER

Aiden

for your thoughtful sentences about how Frida Kahlo's artwork made you feel and what you could see. Well done.

2J

WOW

2J

deserve the WOW Award for their fantastic listening and behaviour during their Cycle Awareness Training. Every group remembered to use their own space, share with their friends and follow instructions to keep themselves safe. Miss Jupp is very lucky to have such a polite and wonderful class!

STARWRITER

Eva

is growing in confidence in using capital letters and full stops correctly when writing on her own. Eva used full sentences to write some interesting responses and learn something new about Frida Kahlo and her collection of paintings. Super!

WOW

Oliver

Well done Oliver for really enjoying our themes week and thinking about Frida Kahlo's life and her art work. I have been very proud.

STARWRITER

Dominic

I enjoyed how you thought really carefully about how Frida Kahlo's artwork made you feel and what you could see 😊 Well done.
