WOW

Anas B is our Worker of the Week. He has been sharing his ideas well in class, using good vocabulary and understanding. He has been completing his work well and trying to make sure that it is his best work too. Keep it up Anas!

STARWRITER

Harper J has been chosen as our Star Writer, because she has been trying so hard to improve her sentence writing. She is using finger spaces well and choosing impressive words to use. She has been enjoying these new challenges. Well done!

WOW

Ollie has showed fantastic teamwork and worked with different technology in Computing this week. He was able to find the different buttons on the keyboard when typing and even labelled his own animal pictogram. You are very clever and remembered to share with others every lesson!

STAR WRITER

Charlie is our Star Writer for writing a fantastic blurb for his animal non-fiction book. You tried your best to include adjectives, commas and use short captions to make your reader want to find out something new! Miss Jupp is looking forward to you finishing your information pages next week, super!

WOW Charlie P has been chosen as the worker of the week this week for her hard working attitude and the perseverance she has shown with some tricky tasks. Charlie has been a super listener this week and has tried hard to answer questions. Keep up the good work!

STARWRITER Jed has been chosen as the star writer this week for his fantastic non-fiction writing about animals. Jed worked really hard to find the information he wanted to include using the ipad and books. He then wrote really interesting sentences about the animals using his phonics to spell words and remembered his capital letters and full stops. Well done Jed!
