

Workers of the Week

Week 35

Fleet WOW

Rowan M is our Worker of the Week. He is showing more focus and effort in his learning tasks, especially his writing. He has also been showing great kindness when playing with others, making sure equipment is being shared fairly. Well done Rowan!

STARWRITER

Edie A is our Star Writer. She independently wrote a sentence about our trip to Thorndon and impressed both Miss Barnes and myself with her use of phonics, when sounding out the words she needed to spell. Well done Edie!

1C WOW

Ellie G – for being such an enthusiastic learner. She has such a positive attitude and thoroughly enjoyed making our leaf art this week! Keep it up, Ellie! 😊

STARWRITER

Thomas L – for writing a fantastic re-telling of the story 'Something Fishy'. He included adjectives, time words, interesting vocabulary and thought hard about how to make it more interesting. I am so impressed! 😊

WOW

Carter J – Carter is our WOW for how hard he has been working at school and home on his phonics. Carter has tried hard to build strategies to help him read tricky words and has made super progress 😊

STARWRITER

Arthur H – Arthur is our star writer for how hard he has worked to develop his writing throughout this year. Arthur always challenges himself to use interesting vocabulary and his writing is always fun and interesting to read. Keep it up, Arthur 😊

WOW

Elliot is our WOW for his excellent progress in Reading and Writing. Not only has Elliot really tried to speed up in lessons but even when asked to do more or answer questions again, he does this with a smile and attempts more on his own. You have achieved so much Elliot and know how clever you are! Keep going, we are so proud of your progress!

STARWRITER

Ollie worked hard to complete an excellent letter based on our 'Care of Henry' story. Miss Jupp could not believe the length of your finished work but also how descriptive it was! Your letter to Mum was full of adjectives and super sentences. You even remembered to ask her a question too!
