WOW

Zahra H is our Worker of the Week this week. She has been sharing her great ideas and is now much more confident to speak aloud in class. She has also been working very hard at home with her reading and also made up a song, using the spelling bee words. Keep up the hard work Zahra!

STARWRITER

Alicia R is our Star Writer for writing her very own sentence all by herself. She correctly wrote the tricky words 'I' and 'to'. She remembered finger spaces and added a full stop to the end of her sentence. Alicia listened carefully to the sounds she needed and almost wrote 'hammock' correctly too. Well done Alicia!

WOW

Chloe M – for really coming out of her shell this week! She has been using a big loud voice to share her great ideas, join in with class discussions and has been very happy and smiling. Keep it up, Chloe! 😊

STARWRITER

Darcy B – For writing a fantastic creative story based on the beach. She used adjectives, conjunctions, used a variety of punctuation and thought hard about how to make it exciting. Well done Darcy, you should be so proud! 😊

James C – for writing an amazing story. His grammar was amazing and he showed such a flare for writing! It had a beginning, middle and end and it was such an enjoyable read. Well done you! 😊

Sammy S – for using such imaginative vocabulary in his creative story. His spelling was fantastic and he built tension. Well done, Sammy! 😊

WOW

2J have achieved the WOW Award for being such a creative, imaginative and artistic class during 'Access All Arts' Week. Miss Jupp was super impressed with how well you all worked together to use different materials and the iPads to create some artwork based on St Lucia. It was so loud, fun and messy in our classroom! Well Done everyone!

STARWRITER

Eliza used her own research and geography facts to write a travel advert about St Lucia. Her clever choice of adjectives, commas and pictures persuaded us all to book a holiday. Excellent writing!
