

Workers of the Week

Week 33

Fleet

WOW

Rudra R

is our Worker of the Week. He has recently been using some impressive vocabulary during class discussions. He has also been challenging himself with our daily tasks, trying to show the best work he can. Keep it up Rudra!

STARWRITER

Alex S

is our Star Writer. He has been working hard towards writing independent sentences and now does so with more confidence. Well done Alex for remembering the sentence features and believing in your self too. Go Alex!

POLITENESS STAR

Scarlett B

Trent

WOW

Betsy

is our WOW this week for using her manners in class. Betsy is such a polite and caring member of Trent class and she sets a good example to others. Well done Betsy! 😊

STARWRITER

William

you have the star writer award for writing a great sentence about our story 'What the ladybird heard'. You are now writing a whole sentence using the word 'and' to extend it further. You are very good at using the sounds you know and our tricky word mat to help. Well done William! 😊

POLITENESS STAR

Georgia

1C

WOW

Jack M

For always being such a happy, engaged learner. He has loved our theme week on the Olympics and the Wonders of the World and has shown teamwork skills and a positive attitude. Well done, Jack! 😊 for working so incredibly hard on his handwriting. He has been so eager to use his new pencil grip and get better at forming his letters. He knows all of his sounds and is getting so good at putting these into words, spelled correctly! Keep up the hard work, Johnny! 😊

STARWRITER

Johnny C

POLITENESS STAR

Phoebe G

Workers of the Week

Week 33

1W

WOW

Albert C

Albert is our WOW for how hard he has been trying in class. Albert always listens carefully to instructions and puts his best effort in to everything he does. Albert, you should be so proud of yourself!

STARWRITER

Finley O

Finley is our star writer this week because he always tries his hardest on every piece of writing he does and wrote a super story about the animation 'Bubbles'. Finley thought carefully about the adjectives he wanted to include to make his writing sparkle!

POLITENESS STAR

Dotty B

1P

WOW

Tommy is our WOW this week for his excellent model house. Tommy spent a long time adding lots of detail to the window and was very precise when drawing on the bricks. I was amazed by your creation! Well done Tommy 😊

STARWRITER

Jack is our star writer this week for his support effort when writing. Jack read over his work and added adjectives to improve his work. Well done Jack 😊

POLITENESS STAR

Frankie

2Mi

WOW

Azaan

has been a keen enthusiast for 'Olympics and Wonders Around the World' Themed Week. He has shown a super attitude, effort and worked hard in every lesson. Azaan has learnt new facts about the history of the Olympics and artwork. Great job!

STARWRITER

Charlie

is our star writer this week because she always tries her hardest to use the word banks and vocabulary in her writing. She has enjoyed learning and writing about her favourite sports. Well done Charlie!

POLITENESS STAR

Violet

Workers of the Week

Week 33

2M

WOW

Alina

Alina has shown brilliant progress in her reading this term. She has used this to help her find lots of facts this week about the Olympics. I was also so pleased with some of her beautiful art work! Well done Alina 😊

STARWRITER

Lexie

Lexie wrote some brilliant facts all about London 2012. She told us about some athletes that were part of Team GB and was able to write about some London landmarks. I was so impressed and pleased with your beautiful handwriting also!

POLITENESS STAR

Dolcie

2J

WOW

Isla

has been such a super member of 2J when celebrating our 'Olympics and Wonders Around the World' Themed Week. Similar to the Team GB athletes we have been learning about, Isla has shown a super attitude, effort and worked hard in every lesson. She has used her own ideas and new facts to show her learning in lots of writing and artwork. What a 'champion' learner you are!

STARWRITER

Max

used his own research from the iPads to write up a collection of facts about a famous Team GB athlete. He was extremely clever in his choice of vocabulary and even remembered to include more about a London Landmark. Your writing was so interesting to read Max and we learnt something new about London 2012. Excellent! 😊

Workers of the Week

Week 33

POLITENESS STAR

Charlie