WOW

Harrison H

is our Worker of the Week. Even though he has not been feeling well lately, he has still been trying hard to complete his learning tasks. Harrison has been listening well to instructions and showing kindness and fairness to others. Keep it up Harrison, well done!

STARWRITER

Rory D

is our Star Writer this week. He has started to make more effort to work independently and complete his learning tasks, without relying on adult support as much. He has been carefully sounding out words to spell them phonetically and trying to keep his writing smaller and neater too. Well done Rory!

WOW

TRENT CLASS

have the WOW award this week to share as they did such a great class assembly all about everyday heroes. I am very proud of you all! 😊

STARWRITER

Ronnie P

you have the star writer award this week for a great sentence about a firefighter. I really like the way used 'and' in the middle to extend your sentence. Well done Ronnie a really super sentence! 😊 for showing such great behaviour and enthusiasm for learning this week. He has been a star and such a fantastic role model to others. Keep it up, superstar! 😊

WOW

Lukas C

STARWRITER

Ellie G

for writing such a wonderful description of the alien from Aliens Love Underpants. She used commas for adjectives, thought of interesting describing words and her presentation was fantastic. Well done, Ellie!

WOW

Leo H

Leo is our WOW for the super effort he has put in to his work this year. Leo now completes his work independently and starts all activities with a positive attitude. He also uses lovely manners too 😊

STARWRITER

Albie H

Albie is our star writer for the super effort he put into writing his creative story. Albie worked hard to use lovely adjectives and senses to make his writing interesting. Well done, Albie 😊 has really impressed us with his super knowledge and answers to questions in Geography. It was clever how you used photographs, ipad research and your own observations to compare Leigh and Sea to St Lucia. Miss Jupp enjoyed hearing your ideas and it was a pleasure taking you on our trip too! You are a superstar!

POLITENESS STAR

WOW

Rocco

STARWRITER

Isla

used a range of different punctuation and adjectives to write a fantastic character description based on 'The Finger Eater'. You also tried your best to correct your spelling and use a dictionary to find the definitions of words that you found in the text. Isla, you have become such a creative writer that produces such detailed and imaginative work!
